THE BOSTONS ARE COMING.

The Bean-Eating Sluggers Will Be Here in March.

HARRY C. MARTIN WORKED IT.

There Will Be Twenty-Five People in The Party Including the Boston Globe Man and His Bride.

Local base ball rooters will have an opportunity to see and admire to their hearts content. As foretold exclusively in The Telegram some days ago the great Boston bean-eating sluggers who walked off with the National pennant last year, and the largest slice of glory in the National League will be here some twenty-five strong about the 21st of March.

All arrangements have been made for the accommodation and comfort of the players, the grounds secured and other things necessary looked after. The improvement suggested in Manager Selee's letter will be made in the ball park which has been secured through the kindness of Mr. Ceasar Cone who did the handsome thing as usual.

The manager will bring two teams with him and some fine exhibition games may be looked for. The players will remain here two or three weeks. The following is an extract from Manager Selee's letter to Mr. Martin:

Boston, 29th, 1898.

Dear Mr. Martin:—

Your last letter received alright. We shall be with you about the 21st, of March.

* * * * * * * * *

I shall have two or three representatives of the press with me. Mr. T. H. Menmane of the Boston Globe will be married on the 22nd of February. He will be in the party and will have his bride with him. I should like to have that land about the home plate raised up so as to make a good even surface for the batters.

I am yours sincerely,

Frank G. Selee.

Credit for securing the players is due entirely to Harry C. Martin who has been engineering the scheme quietly since last year and, as the sequel shows, with perfect success.

Everybody reads baseball news and especially news about the Bostons. It should be an excellent advertisment for the city. A royal welcome should be given to the players and the press men with them, not to mention the bride and groom.

Boy's Club Social.

The boy's club of the first Presbyterian church will give a social on next Friday night to the young people of the town between the ages of twelve and nineteen years. The social will take place in the church parlors and music will be furnished by the Brockmann orchestra. There will be no charges but baskets will be provided and contributions will go the support of Dr. Grimmon in Japan. Doors open after 7:30.

CONVICTS ESCAPE.

A Negro Dies From the Effects of a Blow—Other News.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Feb. 1.—Thomas Jones sent to the roads at the last term of Superior court for pick-pocketing, during the the tobacco fair, filed his chains in twain last night, and made good his escape from the convict camp at Centerville. George Hardgrave, a trusty whose sentence was about up, also escaped with him. An effort will be made to capture them.

The Winston Dramatic club gives the celebrated comedy "Charley's Aunt" at the Armory tonight. The cast differs little from the play given by the club during the tobacco fair, in which Miss Lillian Staples of your city was the central figure.

Lew Wall, colored, 25 years old, was struck by Morgan Heartt, colored, Sunday morning on the corner of Fifth and Church streets, and from the effect of the blow he died last night at 9:30 o'clock, unable to speak a word since the blow. It seems that that Wall had been robbed of some money Saturday night, and went Sunday to find the man who robbed him, became involved in the difficulty with Heartt, and was struck in the breast.

Whether Heartt is the man who robbed him cannot be said, as he denies the taking of the money.

Willis E. Hall, an architect, who has been operating in Baltimore, was recently here visiting relatives. He started back north a couple of weeks ago, was taken ill with pneumonia in Virginia, died, and his remains were sent here last night for interment. The funeral was conducted today by Rev. R. E. Caldwell. On this account Rev. Mr. Caldwell postponed starting for Europe until tomorrow.

There was considerable laughter on the part oi some State officials at the situation.

EWART HELD UP.

His Nomination Goes Over Until Next Monday.

A Washington special to the News and Observer of today says:

At the request of Senator Butler Mr. Ewart's nomination went over until Monday next.

In reply to the correspondent of the News and Observer, Senator Butler said he did not make the request on personal grounds or any other grounds, but simply asked the judiciary committee to let Judge Ewart's nomination go over, which they did.

When asked to state his objection to Judge Ewart, Senator Butler smiled and said he did not care to say anything at this time. This would seem to indicate that the senator has a card up his sleeve and that he will have something to say later.

The story going the rounds today is that Butler desires to defeat Ewart's nomination with the view of forcing Pritchard's nomination on the ground that Pritchard is the only republican in North Carolina who can be confirmed.

With Pritchard out of the senate, Butler would be the king bee in North Carolina, and would then be in a position to control the patronage yet to be distributed among the faithful. Up to date, however, it is said the senator has had no hand nor voice in the appointments made, and the Tar Heel populists are getting restless.

There can be no question but that Senator Butler could have divided the patronage of the state had he so decided.

Senator Pritchard and Judge Ewart were at the White House today and had a pleasant interview with the President.

STARVATION IN HAVANA.

Food Products Taxed So High That They Are Beyond Reach of Poor.

Washington, Jan. 30—According to reports from United States Sanitary Inspector Brunner, deaths from starvation in Havana have increased rapidly. Food products from the United States are so highly taxed, Dr. Brunner says, as to place them beyond the reach of the average consumer. He quotes as an example a shipment of 2,412 chickens from New Orleans, on which the tariff amounted to $700.85, or nearly 30 cents per chicken. The tariff on eggs is also high, and the tax on hogs from the United States is $5 per head. The local supply has been exhausted. Dr. Brunner reports that the steerage travel to ports in Florida is heavy, and the utmost sanitary precautions are being taken in connection with this travel.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

The interest in the election to issue bonds for an extension of the city's sewerage system is growing in a quiet way. The preponderance of sentiment is very strongly in favor of the issue. The citizens, as a whole, are beginning to awake to a sense of Greensboro's magnificent opportunity; that she has reached the parting of the ways; come to a point where she must either go forward or backward.

As the Telegram has before pointed out, North Carolina has reached the town-building stage. We are to have some cities. Those towns that furnish a nucleus of the most progressive, public spirited and active citizens will make the cities; the others will make the has-beens.

That Greensboro is logically the coming town of the Piedmont section is pretty generally recognized. It should also be recognized here at home that, logic or no logic, if the citizens of the town do not push it forward other towns will outstrip it.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—H. H. Kohlsaat & Co., of which firm Herman H. Kohlsaat, editor of the Times-Hearald, is the senior member, yesterday bought out the entire business of the Troy Bakery Company. This gives Kohlsaat & Co. a total of ten restaurants in the down town district.

Bully for Mr. Kohlsaat of Chicago! There has been all the while an odor about the Times-Herald that one seemed to have met before—it is the odor that greets the olfactories of the passer-by when the door of the cheap restaurant swings outward. A peculiar aroma has hovered about Mr. Kohlsaat's leaders, lurked in the interstices of his paragraphs—it was the aroma of stale grease and protesting onions. Happy, happy Chicago! It has Mr. Kohlsaat to feed its mind with ragouts of tommy-rot and its stomach with second hand hash. Let Mr. Kohlsaat extend his restaurant proprietorship to the uptown districts also; let him acquire ten times ten restaurants; the worst he can do is spoil livers and increase the value of his paper as an advertising medium for pepsin tablets, but in the name of Horace Greely and Chas. A. Dana, do not let Mr. Kohlsaaaaat get any more newspapers.

It is wonderful how the growing indications that congress will take some action in reference to Cuba have been accompanied by dispatches of the most profuse victory of the Spanish army in that island. Previously more than three times as many insurgents have been killed, according to Spanish reports, as the Spaniards themselves have ever admitted were in existence. The number increases merrily and methodically. Every pro-Cuban speech in congress sounds the death knell of a certain number of insurgents, heralds a Spanish victory of a given brilliancy. Newspaper correspondents in Cuba say that the only reports having the smallest claim to reliability are those sent by way of Key West. The others are doctored to suit the tastes of Spanish army officers.

Mr. Edmund Gosse the English poet has criticized Carlyle's style very harshly. Which style might Mr. Gosse mean? As a matter of fact Carlyle had two styles as totally different as the style of, say, Mr. Gosse and any good English prose writer. The style of the essay on Burns, for example, is hardly recognizably similar to the style of the Sartor. If "the style is the man" then Thomas Carlyle was a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

Dr. Von Holst, of the University of Chicago, opens the door to his mental incubator and allows the following white plummaged ideas to sail forth:

"If Hawaii is annexed we shall have "two heterogeneous basic principles, two heterogeneous sets of institutions, two heterogeneous sets of ideas, sentiments and practices."

As it is we only have a few sets of heterogeneous asses in our Universities.

The one consoling thing about pension statistics is that at the present rate of increase we shall all be getting pensions in a very few years.

Dr. Nansen did not mind an expedition to the north pole but the hardships of being lionized were too much for the explorer's nerves.

Few people will be disposed to dispute Mr. Speaker Reed's ability to count a vote in congress—even before it has been taken.

ENGINEER REED IS A HERO.

Stopped His Train, Jumped from His Cab and Saved a Girl's Life.

Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 30—Mary Shuck, 12 years old, while crossing a bridge over Coal Run Creek, near Hickory Ridge, on yesterday evening, slipped and fell into the deep, swiftly-running stream just as the fast Northern Central passenger train from Hickory Ridge to this place thundered along.

Engineer Alfred Reed, from the cab window, saw the girl's danger and, quickly setting the air brakes, he jumped off. Landing safely he ran down the embankment and plunged into the icy water. After a hard struggle he reached the girl just as she was about to go under the last time. Reed succeeded in reaching the shore with the girl, after which he placed her in charge of a couple of miners returning from work. They took her home while Reed boarded his engine, the fireman having backed the train to the scene. Then Reed completed his run to this place.

The crew and passengers who witnessed the rescue warmly congratulated Reed for the deed.

SUNK INTO THE MISSOURI.

Part of American Island in South Dakota Suddenly Disappears.

Chamberlain, S. D. Jan. 30—A portion of American Island, in the Missouri River opposite this city has suddenly sunk. The island was granted to the city by the Government for park purposes. Upon it are two natural springs. For a space about seventy-five feet in diameter the earth has dropped down to such an extent that the tops of some of the largest trees are just visible, while others have entirely disappeared in the huge opening, which slowly filled with water While observing the extent of the cave in from the edge, some observers felt the ground sinking under their feet. They succeeded in reaching a place of safety just as the ground upon which they had been standing disappeared into the opening.

Modesty.

"Lady," said Meandering Mike, "I'm surprised at ye. I can't go hungry from yer door widout tellin' ye dat."

"You aren't as surprised as I would have been if you had shoveled off the snow, as I suggested."

"Lady, do you doubt the wisdom o' Nature?"

"No."

"Well, it was Nature dropped dat snow, where it is, an Nature'll come along an' move it off agin when she gitt good an' ready. An' it ain't fur de likes o' you or me to interfere wid her business."—Washington Star.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

"Strange, 'tis Passing Strange"

That all who suffer do not use

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Hopewell, Mecklenburg Co., N. C.
December 1, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in Thirty-six hours the inflamation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would have died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If any one is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great that I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for the Remedy as it deserves.

WILL TURN TO JACK RABBITS.

Gen. Gentry Will Breed Them and Have Fun in Hunting Them.

Lexington, Jan. 30.—Gen. W. H. Gentry of this county has been a large breeder of trotting stock. The horses have failed to sell for satisfactiory prices, and he has contracted with a breeder of jack rabbits in Kansas to send him thirty head of jack rabbits for five head of trotting-bred mares. The jack rabbits will be here in a few days, and then they will be inclosed in a five acre pasture, in which he hopes to breed the rabbits. The rabbits he desires for the entertainment of his friends and himself. He has a great many hounds of different varieties, as well as other breeds of dogs. He purposes to test these hounds with his jack rabbits in order to find just what breed of dog has the required speed and endurance to capture a jack rabbit.

The Era of Road-Building.

The one great public work which now looms up before the people of the United States and imperatively demands attention is road-building — the improvement of old and construction of new highways. It is not likely that there will ever occur another period of railway construction like that through which this country has passed in the quarter century succeeding our great war; but it is both desirable and probable that an equally important and scarcely less costly era of road-building has just begun, and will go on for many decades, adding as much to the wealth of the nation and to the comfort and convenience of the masses as the railroads have accomplished in those directions. In this vast work the Federal government will take but a minor part. It will attend to the instruction of the people as to the most approved methods and the relative value of different materials, but will leave to the States and their inhabitants the actual work of building roads and the raising of money wherewith to carry it on.

In those localities where good roads have been built since the movement for their construction began, a few years ago the men who have footed the bills are more than satisfied with their investment. The benefits resulting from improved transportation facilities are not entirely confined to the farmers. The value of city, town, and village property shares in the enhancement with that of agricultural lands and should bear a due proportion of the cost.—Washington Post.

Crazed By Cigarettes.

Patterson, N. J., Jan. 31—Enoch Aker, 21 years old, was removed from his home, 295 Market street, this evening a raving madman. His condition is attributed to the excessive smoking of cigarettes, a habit which he acquired in his school days. He was taken to the county jail, where he was put in a padded cell.

Trojan Released.

Berlin, Jan. 31.—Emperor William, it is reported, has pardoned Herr Trojan, editor of the Gladderadatsch, who was sentenced a few days ago, to two months imprisonment in a fortress, for lese-majeste in cartooning the Emperor.

The Case of Eli Shaw.

Camden, N. J. Jan. 31—The grand jury in session here is expected before adjournment to bring several more indictments in connection with the mistrial of Eli Shaw. A prominent city official is being investigated.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Sherwood Concert.

Mr. Wm. H. Sherwood is one of the greatest pianoists living today. Con the musical journals of the past fifteen years, and you will find the verdict unanimously to agree with this statement, and Mr. Sherwood is not a back number. At the great Music Teachers Association in New York last summer, where the leading artists of the United States were soloists, it is stated in the papers that the people left all else and crowded to hear Sherwood. Some persons say that they do not care to hear piano music. To hear Rubenstein, a Paderwski. a Sherwood on a concert grand piano is not the kind of piano music in our homes every day. It is what one should hear to be able to distinguished between the truly great and the mediocre. Sherwood is a prodigious performer, in the style of Liszt or Rubenstein, as to his support Max Adler says they are fine artists. Adler, Sherwood's manager, is himself a musician, he studied violin in the Royal High School in Berlin and was at one time a member of the Mendellsohn quintette club, not unknown in Greensboro. Nearly every home nowdays has a piano. How few even imagine the possibilities of this great solo instrument under the touch of a master! You can better afford to miss the whole season of entertainment and hear the choice few world renowned artists, than to miss them. Will you ever regret hearing Schalchi? The voice, the pianoforte, the violin, these are the great solo instruments, and to hear a master of either, is to lift one above the petty trials of this life. Greensboro's musical people will hear Sherwood and his company.

A Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given Miss Carrie Eller, at the home of Judge Eller, on Greene street, last night. Seven couples composed the party and a delightful evening was spent in progressive courtship. Calvin Johnson was voted by the young ladies the most finished artist in wooing and received the prize, a beautiful scarf pin.

Miss Nannie Lee Smith was voted by the young gentlemen the best at an answer. Refreshments were served.

It is said today that it is the purpose of the new railroad commissioners at the next meeting to reduce first class railroad fares to 2½ cents and second class to 1½ cents per mile.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Garland Daniel advertises iceskates today.

Herbert Gregory, a former Greensboro boy, was here today.

Capt. B. J. Fisher came in at noon from Asheboro and left over the C. F. and Y. V. road.

M. C. Patterson, of Richmond, and F. A. Massie, of Charlottesville, were here today on business.

The special sale for Wednesday is announced by the Sample Brown Mercantile Company today.

The new advertisement of Vuncanon & Co., contains food for thought or thoughts of food, either way you take it.

Special values in men's woolen and other underwear, at cut prices, are advertised in the Telegram today by Thacker & Brockmann.

The room formerly occupied by B. L. Ruben as a tailoring establishment, corner South Elm and Sycamore, is now used by the Benbow as a sample room.

With the mercury hanging from 15 to 24 degrees above zero, it will not take a great while for ice to form on the ponds around Greensboro sufficient for skating.

There will be a very important meeting at Buena Vista Lodge No. 21, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present. Work in second degree.

Remember that you can see a good show at the Academy this week for 10, 20 and 30 cents. Don't fail to see the little girl tonight in her song and dance specialty.

Above all things let Greensboro citizens—those who are public spirited and desire a solid grown for the town—keep in mind the crowning need of the city—more manufacturing enterprises.

We have excellent advantages as a shipping point, and raw material of various kinds is conveniently near by. There is no better location, then, for manufacturing enterprises, than Greensboro.

Dr. Henry Louis Smith, of Davidson College, will deliver a lecture on the X-ray at Guilford, on next Friday night. Dr. Smith has delivered his lecture to interested audiences at Charlotte and elsewhere.

It will not be long now before St. Valentine's day will be along. Have your shirt polished at the Steam Laundry. Read what they say in their ad and if you are not a customer try them once and you will be pleased.

Mrs. Geo. W. Pritchett and children left yesterday to join Mr. Pritchett at Pinehurst. We regret to loose these good people as citizens of Greensboro, but express the wish that they will be happy and prosperous in their new home.

Jos. G. Chandler, advance agent of the Lillian Tucker Company, left last night for Petersburg, Va., to arrange for a week's engagement there. Mr. Chandler is a courteous and a clever gentleman, and made a number of friends in Greensboro during his stay here.

President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University, who expected to start for a foreign trip today; in company with Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Winston, and others, will, owing to press of business, not start until tomorrow. He will come up at noon and take the Northbound train here at 12:16.

A gentleman coming in on the 8:50 northbound train this morning lost his hat just this sice of Pomona. He changed cars here for Winston, and was the subject of much merriment at the depot, out in the cold, freezing wind, bare headed. He, however sent to a nearby furnishing store and bought a cap which he pulled on and held down his flowing locks.

"LA BELLE MARIE."

The Lillian Tucker Company Made a Good Opening.

Last night when the curtain rose at the Academy of Music, a packed house greeted the Lillian Tucker company, who began their week's engagement here by presenting "La Belle Marie."

Miss Tucker, who played the leading role, is an artist in her line of no mean ability; and in the play last night was well supported. The audience was entertained, pleased with the performance.

The Dyffryn trio, who appeared between the acts, were much enjoyed, especially so was little Ethel, "the baby Patti" She is a tiny tot and her singing is wonderful.

Tonight the "Golden Giant Mine" will be presented.

Whittier Last Evening.

The program prepared by the West Market Street Epworth League for its literary meeting last evening was indeed one well worthy of praise, and was very successfully carried out. The program was as follows:

Whittier as a Quaker, by Miss Nannie Smith.

Whittier as a Youth, by R.M. Crawford.

Recitation—The Barefoot Boy, by Miss Moselle Andrews.

Qurtette—My Psalm, by Miss Lola Carraway, Nan Wood, and Messrs. R. M. Crawford and John Wheeler.

Whittier as an Old Man, by G. T. Rowe.

Snow Bound, read by Miss Nellie Merrimon.

Whittier as a Poet, by Mrs. G. W. Whitsett.

Those who braved the cold wind and attended this meeting were amply repaid for the trip.

As to Closing Hours.

It has been customary among our clothing merchants to close their stores at 7 o'clock p. m. during the dull season and summer months, thus giving themselves and their clerks a little needed rest and recreation. It seems now that they will be denied this privilege the coming season, owing to the refusal of one of our proprietors to sign the customary agreement.

The writer is at a loss to know his object, as he could not possibly suffer any loss if they all were to close at the same time. The business would all be done within the hours specified and no loss to any one could accrue; besides, there would be a saving in the cost of lights, and a great benefit would result to both proprietors and clerks. "A. Hint,"

Who is a friend of the clerks.

Shook J. Wiley Shook.

An Asheville special to the Charlotte Observer says:

J. Wiley Shook, who held the place of general deputy, has been fired, because the officials at Washington objected to the free way the Haywood statesman had of critcising the administration.

Harkins is said to have pleaded for him, but the Washington bosses said if Wiley was not fired the allowance for the latter's place would be cut off. Then Wiley had to go.

At the Academy.

Don't fail to hear "Daisy Ogden," the child soloist at the Academy Friday night, she alone is worth price of admission charged to hear the Veteran Corps Band.
